

K-Love serves my family by providing uplifting music with positive lyrics. I know many friends that also listen to KLOVE on a daily basis. If this radio station were to be replaced with another, it would be sorely missed. It is unique. There are few radio stations who provide encouraging words of hope to their listeners. Please do not allow LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator service. Thank you.